

Andrew A. Wuebker

2250 Cedar Street, Dighton, Mass. 02715

andrewawuebker@gmail.com | (508) 942-9140 | Twitter: @Andrew_Wuebker

Skills

- Proficient in writing, researching, interviewing and AP style
 - Experience in beat reporting
 - Proficient in Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat and Final Cut Pro
 - Proficient in video and audio recording, video editing
 - Aware of the Google platform
 - Ability to communicate, listen and critically think effectively and efficiently
 - Ability to work under pressure and adapt to changing work environments
 - Customer service
-

Experience

The Hawks' Herald, Bristol, R.I.

January 2017 – May 2018

Sports Editor

- Assigned campus sporting news stories, game stories and feature stories to sports section staff writers weekly and assisted them routinely to produce factual, accurate, grammatically correct and creative sports content
- Covered various RWU sporting events including men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse, wrestling, baseball, softball and other sports
- Wrote, published and edited sports content weekly in university's student newspaper for campus consumption
- Experience in beat sports reporting and covering different beats, including soccer, basketball and lacrosse
- Created, designed and prepared newsprint layouts weekly for exclusive sports content
- Created and maintained relationships with players and coaches of various campus teams through interviews, attending practices and games
- Communicated and collaborated with other newspaper section editors on a daily basis
- Responsible for creating a social media presence for publication's sports content, especially Twitter, through tweeting published stories and analysis during game coverage

Roger Williams University Athletics, Bristol, R.I.

January 2017 – May 2017

Athletic Communications Intern

- Covered multiple sports including wrestling, men's and women's swimming and diving, and baseball for the Roger Williams University Athletic Department by writing and publishing articles for the university's athletics website
 - Worked with other Athletic Communications Assistants at multiple university sporting events by recording statistics or announcing at games
 - Directly communicated and reported to the Assistant Athletics Communications Director on a daily basis regarding game coverage assignments
-

Leadership

Senior Journalism Student of the Year

May 2018

- Awarded to a Roger Williams University senior Journalism student for outstanding academic achievement

Lambda Pi Eta, National Communication Association Honors Society

April 2018 – Present

Member, Roger Williams University Chapter

- Induction based on outstanding academic achievement in the communications field, determined by GPA

The Society of Professional Journalists

September 2017 – Present

Member, Roger Williams University Chapter

Education

Roger Williams University Bachelor of Arts in Journalism, Minor in Marketing

2014-2018